I, Magician

We welcome Cara St.Louis and Shane 'the Ruiner' Bales with a presentation from their lecture series, The Force of Nature

Humanity, the Allofus, lives and evolves by digesting significance. We are at a time of profound decision between our authentic selves and the artificial shell we wear. Suddenly we are aware of vast inner spaces, of the strange significance inside us. At this point, our roots go far deeper into the earth than our branches stretch above it – a thousand times deeper.

Magic is all around us and must be as taken for granted as atomic energy. Join Cara St. Louis and Shane 'the Ruiner' Bales on one of the most important journeys you'll ever take as they lead you through – I, Magician. Your power was not taken away. It is not beyond your reach. You use it everyday. The issue is remembering how to use it. The secret is right in front of your face. Together we will remember as we revisit those simple things we understood when we were children. Magic.

Everything you seek is within. Let's go digging!

Self-Realisation: Life's Greatest and Simplest Gift

Philip Wade joins us to unlock the doors to self-realisation

Self-Realisation: Life's Greatest and Simplest Gift... Yet it eludes so many!

The fundamental Realisation is that you/we are already that which we truly seek. The Realised Self.

The fundamental block is the belief that we are NOT that.

Within this belief are a multitude of perceived blocks that individuals create which act as masks to the Realisation.

Philip will provide insight into Self-Realisation, a guided Infinite Silence meditation and invites people to bring along questions as to their perceived blocks on their life/spiritual experience. No experience necessary just an openness to your highest truth.

Philip experientially Realised the nature of the True Self which is referred to itSELF as Infinite Silence. He shares through direct experience, Spiritual Inquiry, Infinite Touch, his website and other outlets. The sharing has reached all continents and he has held events in the UK, Iceland, Greece (Corfu and Crete) and Amsterdam.

His comprehensive website includes a 30 minute free guided Infinite Silence meditation experience which has been transformative for many people: <https://gatewaylocation.org>
