Elementals my dear Watson – Working with Nature Spirits

We are so pleased to welcome back Adrian Incedon-Webber who argues that there must be fact behind our Folklore, otherwise it would not have stood the test of time

The Leprechauns of Ireland, the Trolls of Scandinavia and Iceland, the Fairies on the Isle of Man – so many countries have their tales of the little folk and all are slightly different. They are the unseen (by most) and tireless workers of the World and they have always been linked to the four elements: earth, wind, fire and water. However, we are now seeing ether spirits joining them and, by identifying and working with them, their energies can be harnessed for the good of us and the planet.

During his talk, Adrian will identify the various groups of elementals, how we can recognise their presence and how to connect with them. He will also explain how they can become trapped in our homes, the sort of problems that they can cause us and our pets, and importantly how to rescue them.

The Aetherius Society – Contacts with the Gods from Space

Drawing on the outstanding, inspiring and controversial teachings given by western master of yoga and founder of The Aetherius Society, Dr George King (1919-1997), one of the greatest trance mediums the world has ever known, David Trimble will show us how we can all make a difference to our troubled world.

Learn more about this multi-faceted Society with its rich mixture of cosmic revelations, life-saving missions, spiritual teachings and service to others, challenging your perspective of life on this Earth and beyond.

Areas that David will cover include Mars, Venus and Jupiter – inhabited by advanced extraterrestrial civilisations; The Star of Bethlehem – a spacecraft from another world; Prayer energy – stored in batteries and released in co-operation with extraterrestrials to bring about world healing and enlightenment; the true history of mankind; Mother Earth is a living Entity; the only energy crisis is the spiritual energy crisis; and the coming of the Next Master.

'So what have you come back for this time?'

David Graham focuses on the journey of the soul as it travels in and out of physical lives, and will include discussion on the evidence for reincarnation along with an understanding about the purpose for these journeys

David was born to an Irish Catholic family in Birmingham, yet grew up to spend much of his adult life as agnostic. A spiritual awakening in 2000 changed that, though it was in 2006 when he found his real passion as a past-life regression therapist.

Developing his practice ever since then, he now also serves as President of EARTH (Earth Association for Regression Therapy), the leading international association devoted to promotion of the therapy, maintaining training standards and a code of conduct. Regression therapists often enable clients to access qualities within themselves that enhance their life now, or resolve a variety of personal issues that affect them now even though the origins may have been in a past life.
